

Sister Lost Soul

Alejandro Escovedo

Nobody left unbroken
Nobody left unscared
Nobody here is talking
That's just the way things are

You had to go, without me
You wandered off alone
And all the neon reflects
Off the sidewalk
Home reminds me
You're not coming home

Sister, lost soul
Brother, lost soul
I need you
Sister, lost soul
Brother, lost soul
I need you

Every last heart is pardoned
And every last tear's been cried
Out on the street the water's frozen
And I feel like the only one alive

Sister, lost soul
Brother, lost soul
I need you
Sister, lost soul
Brother, lost soul
I need you

I long to lay down beside you
Feel your breath in my ear
You're not the first or last
I've lied to
I'm lying to myself right now
You're still here

Sister, lost soul
Brother, lost soul
I need you
Sister, lost soul
Brother, lost soul
I need you
