

Creek Don't Rise

Alela Diane

Well I get tied down when you cross my mind
You won't let me back in, but I won't stop trying
I try to untie the knot but it's tied pretty tight.
Oh, that knot in your heart when you left that night

Cause love is like water and water gets rough
I've had all I can stand but I can't get enough
Let me love you again, give me one more try
If the good Lord's willing and the creek don't rise

Someone remind me not to be reminded of you
Because everything's fine, God I wish it were true
And you run from me like I'm the edge of death
Honey, please stop running and catch your breath

'Cause love is like water and water gets rough
You can drown underneath the surface
So keep your head up
Let me love you again, I think we'll make it this time
If the good Lord's willin' and the creek don't rise
