

Heavy Walls

Alela Diane

Heavy walls
You can't enclose my sound
Heavy walls
You can't enclose my sound
And if you crumble
It will lift me up
If you crumble
It will lift me up
Will I play the guitar
Like my father does
Will I play the guitar
Like my father does
Making those advances
on its strings so smooth
Making those advances
on its strings so smooth
Chilly winds
Bites my blood
Chilly winds
Biting my blood
Wake me up like you do
Concrete branches
Wake me
Save your sky
Don't you turn to black
Save your sky
Don't you turn to black
Cause when you do the thickest walls
will be calling
When you do the thickest walls
will be calling
Heavy walls
You can hide my voice
Heavy walls
You can hide my voice
And when you crumble
It will lift me up
When you crumble
It will lift me up
It will lift me up
It will lift me up
It will lift me up
It will lift me up
