

Love with Life

Alesha Dixon

Temporarily I get by
Hoping if the cloud in my mind
Then I pray, I wanna fall from the stars
Be the lord of the dance
And now I'm dreaming of a world that could be [?] heaven is a place within me
So I choose to love
Even though it gets hard
My heart's in a kingdom, still covered in scars
I'm living for today
I'm happy I can say

That I'm so in love
I'm so in love with life
With an open heart
I'm so in love with life
Don't fight a feeling like this
'Cos if you try to resist
I'll throw a penny in my wishing [?]
Yeah, I'm so in love
So in love with life

Usually the story goes
The more I lose, the more I'm able to grow
I know that every little move that I make
Will be [?] a mistake
In the corner of my mind, a past is put aside
I'm feeling good, 'cos I'm loving the sunshine
Living for today
And now I'm happy I can say

That I'm so in love
I'm so in love with life
With an open heart
I'm so in love with life
Don't fight a feeling like this
'Cos if you try to resist
I'll throw a penny in my wishing [?]
Yeah, I'm so in love
So in love with life

Say it louder
'Cos I'm sick of all the crowded noise
Only room for a higher choice
I make 'em proud of me
Finally I get to really see
What I've been fighting for and I believe
Shine on me
'Cos finally

That's why I'm so in love
I'm so in love with life
With an open heart
I'm so in love with life
I'll throw a penny in my wishing [?] you kiss

Yeah, I'm so in love
So in love with life

I'm so in love
So in love with life
So in love
