

Tug of War

Alesha Dixon

What page you coming from you want me then you don't I cant figure it out
Why can't I let go

My mind is torn in two
This love is difficult
I wanna leave but I keep running back to you

Dont know if I should stay
Walk away
or leave you babe
you got me in a daze
I can't debate
a crazy place

I wanna run away, fly away, get away
but I still feel you babe want you babe
need you babe

Everytime we split, tell myself thats it
giving up, I quit,
and then I love you again
I'm right, you're wrong
boy it's all your fault
here's your ring, i'm gone
I think I love you again

tug of war, cant make my mind up
tug of war, I'm undecided tug of war, my heart's divided
I think I love you again
tug of war, hello byebye tug of war, still undecided
tug of war, this isn't right should I stay or should I go

I hate your stupid voice
You don't give me no choice You talking at me and over me all I hear is noise but when I'm feelin' down You always cheer me up
I'm so confused
Am I in or outta love

Dont know if I should stay
Walk away

giving up, I quit,

tug of war, hello goodbye

Pulling me away and then you're pulling me close I give you what you wanted, what you w-want the most what ever the weather you thought we would be together now my love for you was withered like a month old rose Hey, other side of that door, do we really ever really know for sure It's pretty simple and plain to see, you will never find another me me, me, me, me, me, me, me, me

Cant make up my mind now

giving up, I quit,

tug of war, cant make my mind up
