

Mexico

Alestorm

When the quest is over and the battles won
There's a land far to the south where we go to have some fun
The wenches they are plenty, the alcohol is free
The party lasts all through the night and the alcohol is free

Tonight we drink together
Tomorrow we may die

Yo ho Mexico
Far to the south where the cactus grow
Tequila and a donkey show
Mexico, Mexico
Yo ho Mexico
Far to the south where the cactus grow
Take me away from the ice and the snow
Let's go to Mexico

A pirate's life is simple
We drink and steal and kill
Always we are questing, in search of bigger thrills
We sail across the oceans, got drunk in many bars
But when we sail to Mexico that's where we party hard

Tonight we drink together
Tomorrow we may die

Yo ho Mexico
Far to the south where the cactus grow
Tequila and a donkey show
Mexico, Mexico
Yo ho Mexico
Far to the south where the cactus grow
Take me away from the ice and the snow
Let's go to Mexico

Yo ho Mexico
Far to the south where the cactus grow
Tequila and a donkey show
Mexico, Mexico
Yo ho Mexico
Far to the south where the cactus grow
Take me away from the ice and the snow
Three margaritas and a taco
Let's go to Mexico
