

Sensitivity

Alex Goot

I don't even know the real me anymore
I can't even show how I feel
I hit the floor
I'm talking rock bottom
My feelings I fought 'em
I can't believe it's come to this
Cause I need to a grip on reality

Yeah, Yeah

Now I-uh-I-I-I wanna feel some, some sensitivity
I-uh-I-I-I I'm here, I'm telling you I

Cleared my life
I changed my head
Trying to catch my skin again
I'm finding out what makes me wanna live
By living it up again
It's my world
I paved my way
Found my sensitivity, yeah
I stepped back from the edge
Now I'm living it up again

Yeah

I've been doing fine in my misery
Not crazy
I told them not to worry about me

But every time I-uh-I-I-I wanna feel some sensitivity
I'm here, I'm telling you I

Cleared my life
I changed my head
Trying to catch my skin again
I'm finding out what makes me wanna live
By living it up again
It's my world
I paved my way
Found my sensitivity
I stepped back from the edge
Now I'm living it up again

Living it up again
Living it up again
Living it up now I'm not crazy I'm just sensitive
I stepped back from the edge

I cleared my life
I changed my head
Trying to catch my skin again
I'm finding out what makes me wanna live
By living it up again
It's my world
I paved my way

I stepped back from the edge

Living it up again
I'm living it up again
Living it up again
I'm living it up again
