I don't even know the real me anymore I can't even show how I feel I hit the floor I'm talking rock bottom My feelings I fought 'em I can't believe it's come to this Cause I need to a grip on reality Yeah, Yeah Now I-uh-I-I-I wanna feel some, some sensitivity I-uh-I-I-I I'm here, I'm telling you I Cleared my life I changed my head Trying to catch my skin again I'm finding out what makes me wanna live By living it up again It's my world I paved my way Found my sensitivity, yeah I stepped back from the edge Now I'm living it up again Yeah I've been doing fine in my misery I told them not to worry about me But every time I-uh-I-I-I wanna feel some sensitivity I'm here, I'm telling you I Cleared my life I changed my head Trying to catch my skin again I'm finding out what makes me wanna live By living it up again It's my world I paved my way Found my sensitivity I stepped back from the edge Now I'm living it up again Living it up again Living it up again Living it up now I'm not crazy I'm just sensitive I stepped back from the edge I cleared my life I changed my head Trying to catch my skin again I'm finding out what makes me wanna live By living it up again It's my world I paved my way Found my sensitivity

I stepped back from the edge Now I'm living it up again

Living it up again
I'm living it up again
Living it up now I'm not crazy I'm just sensitive
Living it up again
I'm living it up again
Living it up now I'm not crazy I'm just sensitive
