

Backseat Clause

Alex Lloyd

If this gets me home then i'll be yours
Last plane to leave well it's a back seat clause
You never call since you found god
I love you more cause it's a back seat clause
I'm still running away with you
I'm still running away with you
You are the one that i have flund
A mystery that has come around
All lonely souls must find a friend
You are the means to a stop start end
It's all the same
It's all the same
