

Beautiful

Alex Lloyd

All goodbyes disappeared,
When I first set my eyes on you,
I found a world so pure and blue

Today, I vow to you,
That every little piece you see,
Is coming from the heart of me

You are so beautiful,
And you're filling up my day,
With the things I can't explain

You are so beautiful,
And we're holding on today,
Yeah, we're holding on,
We're holding on

Among the broke glass,
A road we've all been down before,
But this time there's an open door

A code so set and sealed,
Where nothing is unbreakable,
And every missing piece is found

You are so beautiful,
And you're filling up my day,
With the things I can't explain

You are so beautiful,
And we're holding on today,
Yeah, we're holding on,
We're holding on

All goodbyes disappeared,

You are so beautiful,
And you're filling up my day,
With the things I can't explain

You are so beautiful,
And we're holding on today,
Yeah, we're holding on,
We're holding on

You are so beautiful,
And you're filling up my day,
With the things I can't explain

You are so beautiful,
And we're holding on today,
Yeah, we're holding on,
We're holding on

It started with a simple feeling, yeah
It started for a simple reason, yeah
