

Still Waiting

Alex Lloyd

I got pictures of you that I'm still looking through
I got no place to be, if you still needing me

I'm still waiting, I'm still waiting, I'm still waiting for you

I'm still waiting, I'm still waiting, I'm still waiting for you

Do you find it too hard
Is it just way too scarred
Are we still looking through
To the life we once knew

I'm still waiting, I'm still waiting, I'm still waiting for you

I'm still waiting, I'm still waiting, I'm still waiting for you

I'm still feeling the same
I'm still playing your game

I got pictures of you, that I'm still looking through

I'm still waiting, I'm still waiting, I'm still waiting for you

I'm still waiting, I'm still waiting, I'm still waiting for you

I'm still feeling the same
I'm still playing the game
I'm still waiting for you
When they whispered your name
All the pleasure and pain
I'm still waiting for you
