

My Heart Is on the Run

Alexander

Like a ghost you follow me now
Your shadow is
Behind me when I look around
I feel a touch, I think I hear your breath
I try to put some space between us
But it doesn't help.
And I know now
That's the way its gonna be
Yes I know now
You'll catch up to me

Every little step I take
Every single move I make
Maybe there is no escape
No matter how far I've come
I still feel close to you
I don't care what I do
Baby I love you and I know you're the one
But my hearts on the run.

I was alone that's how I thought it should be
I never found someone I wanted next to me
But now I see the world through different eyes
You found your way into my arms and into my life
And I know now, that's the way its got to be
Yes I know now. I want you here with me

Every little step I take
Every single move I make
Maybe there is no escape
No matter how far I've come
I still feel close to you
I don't care what I do
Baby I love you and I know you're the one
But my hearts on the run.

Oh, undeniable, inescapable
What's been going on? Baby, it's powerful
Why do I even try? When I know
That I can't get away
I just can't get away.

And I know now
That's the way it's got to be
Yes I know now
We were mean to be

Every little step I take
Every single move I make
Maybe there is no escape
No matter how far I've come
I still feel close to you
I don't care what I do
Baby I love you and I know you're the one
But my hearts on the run.

Every little step I take

Every single move I make
I still feel close to you
I don't care what I do
Baby I love you and I know you're the one

Mhmm, my heart is on therun...
