(2x) All I need is your love All I need is a beat All I need is your rhythm To set me free The rhythm tonight... The rhythm tonight... Whips, leather seats The silhouette for fame Knew it was love from a million miles away Out in the car, take me far as you can go 'Cause I wanna love you, so come take me away I feel the rhythm calling me every night It's pulling me under, I'm not trying to fight The way you're dancing, honey it feels so right I need to feel your, feel your Feel your rhythm tonight tonight Feel your rhythm tonight tonight tonight Feel your rhythm tonight tonight Feel your rhythm tonight tonight Feel your rhythm tonight I need you here Don't even know your name Love how you dance like you've never been afraid Love made me run but I ran into you I'd wanna keep on running to beat just like my heart I feel the rhythm calling me every night It's pulling me under, I'm not trying to fight The way you're dancing, honey it feels so right I need to feel your, feel your Feel your rhythm tonight tonight Feel your rhythm tonight I need your love, I need the beat Oh give me your rhythm Just set me free All I need is your love All I need is a beat All I need is your rhythm To set me free We run around in the space I can see it in the look on your face

I feel the rhythm calling me every night

Just close your eyes and feel the rhythm tonight

We are fly, it's a matter of time

It's pulling me under, I'm not trying to fight
The way you're dancing, honey it feels so right
I need to feel your, feel your
Feel your rhythm tonight tonight tonight
Feel your rhythm tonight tonight
Feel your rhythm tonight
