

A Little Bit

Alexz Johnson

It's only gunna get better
It's only gunna get right
Cause when I borrow your sweater
It's all alright!
It's only gunna get happenin'
Cause I got one foot in your door
And when you told me you love me
(Let's go!)
I love you more, yeah I love you more

Cause all I ever needed was a little bit of lovin'
Yeah, a little bit of lovin' goes a long way
All I ever needed was a little bit of lovin'
Yeah, a little bit of lovin' goes a long way
All I ever needed was a little bit of love
A little bit, a little bit, a little bit of love

It's only gunna get crazy
If you let me get get away
Cause when you call me your baby
It's all okay!
It's only gunna get messy
If you ain't got dirt on your floor
And when you told me you want me
I want you more, yeah I want you more

Cause all I ever needed was a little bit of lovin'
Yeah, a little bit of lovin' goes a long way
All I ever needed was a little bit of lovin'
Yeah, a little bit of lovin' goes a long way
All I ever needed was a little bit of love
A little bit, a little bit, a little bit of love
All I ever needed was a little bit of love
A little bit, a little bit, a little bit of love

Hey!

You gotta-gotta give me love
(Gotta-gotta give me love)
You gotta-gotta give me love
(Gotta-gotta give me love)
You gotta-gotta give me love
(Gotta-gotta give me love)
You gotta-gotta give me love
(Hmmm)
You gotta-gotta give me love

All I ever needed was a little bit of lovin'
Yeah, a little bit of lovin' goes a long way
All I ever needed was a little bit of lovin'
Yeah, a little bit of lovin' goes a long way
All I ever needed was a little bit of love
A little bit, a little bit, a little bit of love
All I ever needed was a little bit of love
A little bit, a little bit, a little bit of love
All I ever needed was a little bit of love
A little bit, a little bit, a little bit of love

A little bit, a little bit, a little bit of love
