

Give Me Fire

Alexz Johnson

Champagne
I'm breaking every single chain
Insane
I'm watching all my colors change
I wait for your call I feel it in my bra
You're burning down my walls
Not scared to lose it all
When I kiss your lips
We're touching finger tips
My stomach starts to flip
I'm ignited this is it

You give me fire
Give me fire coming out
It's coming out (Hey!)
You give me fire
Give me fire coming out
It's coming out (Hey!)

Too late
To even try to walk away
Goodness sake
I'll walk the line won't hesitate
And I hope I'm caught
My panties in a knot
Ya I'm into what you got
I can't fight it it's too hot
When it gets too much
I'm melting it your touch
I'll be welcoming the rush
Can't deny it this is love

You give me fire
Give me fire coming out
It's coming out (Hey!)
You give me fire
Give me fire coming out
It's coming out (Hey!)

Maybe I fell too soon
But have you met you?
What I wouldn't do
It's just like Johnny and June
They wrote on the moon
They might have fallen too soon
But they found the room

You give me fire
Give me fire coming out
It's coming out (Hey!)
You give me fire
It's coming out (Hey!)
