

Let 'Em Eat Cake

Alexz Johnson

You tell your brother you know nothing about me
You tell your sister no sense of following
Another season, another year gone by
To one another, but choose a higher ride

Chain game, we don't mind sleeping in the rain
Leave it be, I'm not yours and you don't belong to me
We let them eat, we let them eat, we let them eat cake
We let them eat, we let them eat cake
Cake

The holy water will wash away your sin
The burning sun will burn upon your skin
Another summer, another winter gone
We're gonna find her, we're gonna bring her home

Chain game, we don't mind sleeping in the rain
Leave it be, I'm not yours and you don't belong to me
We let them eat, we let them eat, we let them eat cake
We let them eat, we let them eat cake
Cake

Chain game, we don't mind sleeping in the rain
Leave it be, I'm not yours and you don't belong to me
We let them eat, we let them eat, we let them eat cake
We let them eat, we let them eat cake
