

Punk Rock Chick

Alexz Johnson

I don't care about nobody
I don't care about myself
I couldn't care about my body
I couldn't care about my health

I don't carry no aggression
I don't carry no regret
I only think about the melody, B-b-b-Benny & the Jets

Things are never gonna go your way
Things are never gonna go your way
Things are never gonna go your way

Yeah, yeah

Fall on your knees
Fall with the breeze
Read when I please

Hey yeah,
I'm just a punk rock chick with another lame melody

I don't care about your issues
I don't need to hear your plans
I don't need you here or miss you
I don't care about my band

Don't show me your directions
I'm not following your map
I don't care about your feelings
I don't care about your crap

Things are never gonna go your way
Things are never gonna go your way
Things are never gonna go your way

Yeah, yeah

Fall on your knees
Fall with the breeze
Read when I please

Hey yeah,
I'm just a punk rock chick with another lame melody
