

Don't Blow Your Mind

Alice Cooper

I said one day I'd find the game
Well now you know I'm not insane
You tried to take me for a ride
Now all you feel is suicide
We're two of a kind
Take what you can find
But don't blow your mind away
You led me to another life
Of work and pain and sacrifice
I broke away from you somehow
And look who's goin' through it now
We're two of a kind
Take what you can find
But don't blow your mind away
So now you know the reason why
I'm laughing here and why you cry
'cause you don't mean a thing no more
And I'm just like I was before
