I Gotta Get Outta Here

Alice Cooper

Yeah, yeah Yeah, yeah, yeah

I can't wait to wake up in my very own bed Far away from the madness and my poundin' head The shiver up my spine and this feelin' of dread

Well, first I finally passed out, then I woke up in pain Tangled in the wreckage of a runaway train Was I the last man on Earth or was I just insane?

I gotta, gotta, gotta, gotta get outta here I gotta, gotta get outta here I'm gettin' the message, it's totally clear Yeah, I really gotta get outta here

I danced at the disco where the bodies all fell Piled up to the sky, what a sulfurous smell Man, the ghouls on the beach, they were hotter than hell (Yeah, yeah, yeah)

I popped the old man put a hole in his eye Spent the night with the devil, she was such a bad guy And if he has her way, I will eternally fry (Yeah, yeah, yeah)

I gotta, gotta, gotta, gotta get outta here I gotta, gotta get outta here It's not complicated; yeah, it's pretty damn clear I really gotta get outta here

Just wanna be myself again And find my way out of this iniquitous den I ain't havin' fun and I ain't makin' friends I don't wanna know how this nightmare ends

I don't know why I'm here, why I've fallen from grace I can't explain the burns or the scars on my face Somebody please wake me up and get me outta this place (Yeah, yeah, yeah)

I said, I gotta, gotta, gotta, gotta get outta here I gotta, gotta get outta here They say, Is it the message? Clear to you yet, sonny

What part of dead don't you get? Uh, excuse me? What part of dead don't you get? Whoa, whoa, whoa, wait a minute

What part of dead don't you get? I'm sorry, are you talking to me? What part of dead don't you get? Hey, I signed on for a nightmare

What part of dead don't you get? Really, I mean, that's a little twisted, don't you think? What part of dead don't you get? I, don't, I, I, hey, whoa

What part of dead don't you get? I get it, but, but I don't get it What part of dead don't you get? I'm sinking here, hello? Yeah, yeah, yeah
