

Maybe

Alice In Chains

Long gone the days of summer
In L.A. it stretches longer
Fading, waiting
Try to heal but the pain it won't go
Start with less always seems to cost more
Hating, breaking

Remember, come December
One day can last forever
Ain't nowhere that's safe for a lowly pretender
I'm shooting straight for the target center

Maybe you should know
I'm feeling lonely and I'm tired, oh yeah
Maybe I should go
Got no desire to watch the last tear fall
Maybe this will show
I'm reeling, empty, uninspired, oh yeah
Maybe I don't know
You anymore and I'm smiling
Our burden is untied
Let it die

I'd be lying if I said it felt right
Even though I got a dog in this fight
Wounded, losing
People talk, in and out the words go
To be the one from where the wind it does blow
Hounded, surrounded

Remember, come December
One life can live forever
Ain't nowhere that's safe for a lowly pretender
I'm shooting straight for the target center

Maybe you should know
I'm feeling lonely and I'm tired, oh yeah
Maybe I should go
Got no desire to watch the last tear fall
Maybe this will show
I'm reeling, empty, uninspired, oh yeah
Maybe I don't know
You anymore and I'm smiling
Our burden is untied
Let it die

Maybe you should know
I'm feeling lonely and I'm tired, oh yeah
Maybe I should go
Got no desire to watch the last tear fall
Maybe this will show
I'm reeling, empty, uninspired, oh yeah
Maybe I don't know
You anymore and I'm smiling
Let it die
