Swing on This

Alice In Chains

Mother said come home Father said come home Sisters said come home So my friends said come home

I said

Let me be, I'm alright Can't you see, I'm just fine Little skinny, okay I'm asleep anyway

Then I heard a voice Said "Son you have a choice" I then slapped my face

Let me be, I'm okay I'm awake anyway It's too bright over there I can shift, cannot steer So I drive them away For a while, then I stay

[Solo]

Now I have to go home Do as, when in Rome

Let me be, I'm alright Can't you see I'm just fine Little skinny, okay I'm asleep anyway Let me be, I'm okay I'm awake anyway
