

Aint nobody's business what I'm doing with my life,
So if I should feel like wasting it all that should be alright,

Feelin' sorry for myself was takin' up my time,
So I thought I'd stay at home, until I got some kind of sign

Thank god one of the guys, he got to me.
Said, get your butt here A.S.A.P.
Looked me in the eyes,
Shook his head,
Pulled up a chair and then he said,

Heyyy ya might just wanna,
Sit down when I tell ya this honey,
I know you've been dumped and all that shit
But your attitude sucks, you gotta admit
Get yourself together I know you,
You rat on me once and I'll kill you,
One more he said,
And you're as good as dead.

I guess I have no choice, but with admitting my mistake.
There's no excuse to be alive, each time this young heart breaks.
Life should be a fairy tale with happy ever afters
Like a place where no one lies,
all problems solved with laughters

Thank god one of the guys, he got to me.

One member of my pack said to me
I hope you understand you're not gonna like what I have to say
I know you've been dumped and all that shit
But your attitude sucks you gotta admit
Get yourself together, I know you.
If you rat on me once, I'll kill you.
