

Humankind

Alice Russell

Are you a gentle man do you do the best you can don't get uptight with me will you be the fool for me will you go and open doors take me away to distant shores jump around and fight for me will it all grow naturally will i see you standing on my corner my phone rings late a night, will we be there talking through till morning putting all the world to right will you kiss me so softly down my neck go rubbing all the bits i like it may be that i'm asking to much but its just the way i do
can you
are you rough enough, rough enough
can you
are you tough enough tough enough
can you
are you rough enough, rough enough
enough to be my number one
are you rough enough, rough enough
can you
can you
are you rough enough, rough enough
if we go your way or you come to my come lets create a new humankind
can you tugg my hair and slap my behind i'm a whole lot of woman i want to recline
i'm a whole lot of woman i want to recline
I am a gentle girl i will do the best i can i won't get uptight with you cos i'm just a fool like you i'll go and open doors take you to distant shores jump around and fight for you then all will grow naturally you will see me standing on your corner you phone rings late at night and i'll be there talking to the morning
putting all the world to right then i'll kiss you so softly down your neck go rubbing all the bits you like it may be that your asking too much but the best is all i do
are you rough enough, rough enough

can
are you rough enough, rough enough
i'm a whole lot of woman i want to recline
