

Somebody's Gonna Love You

Alice Russell

Somebody's gonna love you
What are you gonna do about it?
Somebody's gonna love you
You don't turn and walk away
Somebody's gonna love you
There ain't nothing at all you can do about it
Somebody's gonna love you
Oh yeah
Somebody's gonna love you
What are you gonna do about it?
Someone's gonna love you
What is there to say?
Somebody's gonna love you
You can't try to stop them baby
Someone's gonna love you
Oh yeah
Somebody's gonna love you
What are you gonna do about it?
Someone's gonna love you
You don't turn and walk away
Somebody's gonna love you
There ain't nothing you can do about it
Somebody's gonna love you
Oh yeah
When the song's soft and low
When he calls you've got to go
You don't turn and walk away
He will get to you one day
You'll be scared and alone
Just singing your own sweet song
When love calls your name to another song you must sway
Somebody's gonna love you
What are you gonna do about it?
Someone's gonna love you
What is there to say?
Somebody's gonna love you
You can't try to stop them baby
Someone's gonna love you
Oh yeah
Somebody's gonna love you
Gonna tell the whole wide world about it
Someone's gonna love you
Get down on their knees and pray
Somebody's gonna love you baby
Gonna scream and shout about it
Someone's gonna love you til their dying day
Somebody's gotta love them
How you gonna give me the squeezing
So you gonna love them
Shout it out to the whole world
So you're gonna love them
Ain't nothing at all you can do about it
When love calls you've got to go
They're gonna tell the whole wide world about it
Somebody's gonna love you
Let you down on their knees and pray

Somebody's gonna love you
