

Loyalty

Alice Smith

I gave you all I have to give
My love, my time,
I couldn't give the life I've lived
That can't be right.
I never thought that this could be
For you and me the scenes are fade, I couldn't see
The song I'll never sing.

Don't take for granted my loyalty
Don't be so shady,
We were friends, alright?
Just moving down the line, boy
You turned on me, was it jealousy?

Now when you call me just to calm
Me by your side, don't be surprised if I don't run
Just to make it right.
I think I just misunderstood,
You couldn't be expected to do what you should
I know you never would.

Don't take for granted my loyalty
Don't be so shady,
We were friends, alright?
Just moving down the line, boy
You turned on me, was it jealousy?
