

I never thought that you'd find out i did it,
I was so scared that you would leave so i hid it,
I know we said that we'd always be honest,
So now i went out and messed up, our nest
It finally seems like we've turned into strangers,
Its gotten so bad there's just no more anger,
So now it seems like we can't get no further
I can't believe i'll be bright for another

I'll be the switch she turns on,
She'll be mine too, i get off,
I'll be the fuse that she blows,
And even with the lights out we'll glow

So where's the sun it shines no love on your face, under the moon and with the girl that's in your place,
and even Edison has no idea, of all the blackouts i've caused you and me

I'll be the switch she turns on,
She'll be mine too, i get off,
I'll be the fuse that she blows,
And even with the lights out we'll glow
I'll be the switch she turns on,
She'll be mine too, i get off,
I'll be the fuse that she blows,
And even with the lights down real low

(we'll glow, we'll glow, we'll glowwow)

I'll be the switch she turns on,
She'll be mine too, i get off,
I'll be the, I'll be the fuse that she blows,
And even with the lights out we'll glow

I'll be the switch she turns on,
She'll be mine too, i get off,
I'll be the fuse that she blows,
And even with the lights out we'll glow
I'll be the switch she turns on,
She'll be mine too, i get off,
I'll be the fuse that she blows,
And even with the lights out we'll glow

(I'll be the, I'll be the fuse)
(I'll be the, I'll be the fuse)
