

Rubber Mallet

Alien Ant Farm

Cablecars run through my mind
Think of north on Valentine
Maybe we drink, to old friends
You should go, she's on my mind again
I lost my only enemy

So I reminisce thoughts
Tried be true
Takes me back, when I had to choose
And I don't ever lose
Someone's making me love, and I don't think it's you
Sleep, and I don't ever dream
Someone's got me in line and I don't ever dream

Indecision breaks my vision
And I don't give a damn
Indecision breaks my vision
And I don't give a damn
So I reminisce thoughts, tried be true
Then played you out, was not good
Reminisce thoughts, tried be true
Then I play you out like a rubix cube
And I don't ever lose
Someone's making me love and I don't think it's you
Free from disease now I'm clean
You just punch your hole, and it won't seem to bleed

Only, only two of us, only the two of us

When I had to choose, and I don't ever lose
Someone's making me love and I don't think it's you
Free from disease now I'm clean
You just punch your hole and it won't seem to bleed
