

Dive In

Alisha's Attic

Dive in and show me your depth
Can you look inside an angels eyes
And see a wave of fear?
Something may not be as pure
As she would have you think, my dear
Don't expect too much from her
Coz she might just break your back
Before you've inspected her from head to toe
No, don't expect too much from her
Coz she might just smile the sweetest smile
And you would melt into her
You're a weak puppy again

Air, air
Dive in if you want to know the way I feel
Air, air
Dive in if you want to know that this is real
Air, air
Dive in if you want to know the way I feel
Air, air
Dive in if you want to know that this is real

My heart's an open book
But can you read between the lines
Can you escape my demons
For the price of a kiss so deep
You'll wonder where you found
This hippy, trippy girl

Don't expect too much from her
Coz her thoughts are sometimes quite un-saint-like
She thinks she wants you but she doesn't know
No, don't expect too much from her
Coz she might convince you she feels it
But it's hidden somewhere crazy
Deep down in the bottom of her soul

Air, air
Dive in if you want to know the way I feel
Air, air
Dive in if you want to know that this is real
Air, air
Dive in if you want to know the way I feel
Air, air
Dive in if you want to know that this is real

You want to get high
You want to give in
I'll let you confess
You feel it within
You want to get high
You want to give in
I'll let you confess
You'll feel it within

Air, air
Dive in if you want to know the way I feel

Air, air
Dive in if you want to know that this is real
Air, air
Dive in if you want to know the way I feel
Air, air
Dive in if you want to know that this is real
Air, air (you want to get high)
Dive in if you want to know the way I feel
Air, air (you want to get there)
Dive in if you want to know that this is real
Air, air (I'll let you confess)
Dive in if you want to know the way I feel
Air, air (you'll feel it within)
Dive in if you want to know that this is real
