

It's Not Your Fault

Alisha's Attic

It's not your fault if sometime's you're afraid, yeah
It's not your fault
No, it's not your fault
Even though it's real, you're always faking it
It's not your fault
And I have only one thing to say
Yeah, I will scare them all away
Coz positive is ever beautiful
Live for the day, it's hard you say
It's not your fault

Oh, and by the way,
You're got the nicest smile I've ever seen,
So come smile for me
Yeah, you've got everything that I've been looking for
I couldn't want much more

It's not your fault
If sometimes you're not brave, yeah
It's not your fault
Yeah, it's not your fault
If you think this world only brings you heartache
It's not your fault

And I have only one thing to say
Yeah, I will scare them all away
Coz positive is ever beautiful
Live for the day, it's hard you say
It's not your fault

Oh, and by the way,
You're got the nicest smile I've ever seen,
So come smile for me
Yeah, you've got everything that I've been looking for
I couldn't want much more

And I have only one thing to say
Yeah, I will scare them all away
Coz positive is ever beautiful
Live for the day, it's hard you say
It's not your fault
(if sometimes you're afraid)

It's not your fault if sometimes you're not brave, yeah
It's not your fault if you think this world only brings you heartache
It's not your fault (only one thing to say)
(everything that I've...)
It's not your fault
Scare them all away
Scare them all away
Positive is ever beautiful

So don't be scared now baby
Don't be scared now darling
Scare them all away
Scare them all away
