```
Getting wrecked,
The cross she bares is in her eyes,
Just don't go there if you want to be her friend.
In a full room, she plays with herself
Would you like to take her on?
She fights hard for a girl you know.
And she says:
"I don't need no sympathy from you,
No need to analyse
What's respect in a world of the blind leads the blind?
Give me nothing
I want nothing
I won't miss you when you're gone"
(take it all away)
(take it all away)
(strip it all away)
Bare and alone I choose,
You're not my muse.
What's your definition of wild,
The things I've endured % \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) ^{2}
All the years I've struggled, tell me,
If it's so flawed on the outside,
Is it unaffected inside?
And she says:
"I don't need no sympathy from you,
No need to analyse
What's respect in a world of the blind leads the blind?
Give me nothing
I want nothing
I won't miss you when you're gone"
(take it all away)
(take it all away)
(strip it all away)
Bare and alone I choose,
You're not my muse.
(what did you want from me?
Did you think I was easy baby?
Did you think I would be in awe
What did you want from me?
Did you think I was easy baby?)
And she says:
"I don't need no sympathy from you,
No need to analyse
What's respect in a world of the blind leads the blind?
Give me nothing
I want nothing
I won't miss you when you're gone"
(take it all away)
(take it all away)
(strip it all away)
Bare and alone I choose,
You're not my muse.
(take it all away)
```

(take it all away) I want nothing
(strip it all away) Give me nothing
Bare and alone I choose,
You're not my muse.
