

Wake Up Exhausted

Alkaline Trio

I wake up exhausted.
It's not morning.
It's back to sleep
to re-dream me.
We're alone and
we're happy
but there you are angry with me.

Are you alright?
I can't stand up straight.
Are you alright?
Can you get me off your mind?

I hated this city
before you came here
so let go and move on.
We're strangers.
We're not friends.
I hate this and I hate them.

This city's exhausted
and it's wound up soon to be a place
that's just filled up and I find out that you're angry
and you're sorry
you ever met me.

Are you alright?
I can't stand up straight.
Are you alright?
Can you get me off your mind?

Are you alright?
I can't stand up straight.
Are you alright?
Can you get me off your mind?

I wake up exhausted.
It's not morning.
It's back to sleep
to re-dream me.
We're alone and
we're happy
but there you are angry with me.

Are you alright?
I can't stand up straight.
I am alright.
I can get you off my mind.

I am alright.

I can stand up straight.
Are you alright?
Can you get me off your mind?

Can you get me off your mind? x4
