

The Grand Illusion

Alkemyst

Like a curse
It took me by surprise
It seemed the veil had been torn
Burnt aflame

Reality appeared as it actually is
What a torture room for me!
For me... What a torture...

I need some silence
I need to leave the world behind
Just hear the silence
This world drives me mad

It's a dream - illusion
We're still here, watching you
Close your eyes and windows
Anyway we're there!

In my shelter, life's under control
Frozen picture of the sparkle of existence

I need some silence
I need to leave the world behind
Just hear the silence...
It drove me insane!

Shadows dance, the reverie covers the world
Let my mind build up the perfect illusion
As the world's still turning, everyday gets my dream closer
Until the day grand illusion comes true

Now I've reached the breaking point
Where everything collapses
So clear - I never had control!

Shadows dance...
