

Here is My Heart

All 4 One

Every day
He's farther away
Only the skies above him
Watching him fly
With a gleam in his eye
Wouldn't you love to love him?
I know
It's not safe too near the sun
But I go
And keep getting closer to that light
I think I might...

Not today, maybe not tomorrow
Everything in time

Have it all
But do you recall
Back when our minds were so free?
We could get close
To our visions and hopes
I lived for times just like these
And I know
What you need, what you want, so many things
So I'll go
And keep getting stronger on the way...

Not today, maybe not tomorrow
Everything in time
I am here for joy, I am here for sorrow
There is a reason and a rhyme

It does not matter who's to blame
Any judgment is blind
Past the anger, beyond the shame
There is peace of mind
In time...

And I know
It's not safe too near the sun
But I go
And keep getting closer to that light
I think I might...

Not today, maybe not tomorrow
Everything in time
