

Your Days Are Numbered

All Else Failed

Villain

who are you, what are you, how can you LIVE!

run like a child, try to hide from the truth, did you forget you are human, life

won't forgive you

NEVER!

spit up a mouthful of shit you expect us to buy, it's just another lie

it's so clear to everyone, everyone but you

Open and shut, you can run but you can't hide

God will spit you out

Your days are numbered!
