

Stupid people

All Ends

Why, why?
A worn out word that people force
On each other
And what will happen if they stand
Up and say "why not"
Take the risk, and grow up
Need to broaden your views
You won't get no where asking why

Stupid people
Never reach for the stars
Stupid people
Always turn back and then what
Stupid people!
How can you live like that?
Why?

Year after year same old procedure
And still they have the nerve to say
Why me?
I'll tell you the problem, man
Then maybe you'll get it
You're like junkies addicted to
What used to be

Stupid people
Never reach for the stars
Stupid people
Always turn back and then what
Stupid people!
How can you live like that?
Why?

Why me?
I'll tell you the problem, man
Then maybe you'll get it
Why not?
You're like junkies addicted to
What used to be

Stupid people
Never reach for the stars
Stupid people
Always turn back and then what
Stupid people!
How can you live like that?
Why?

They never reach for the stars
Always turn back and then what
Stupid people!
How can you live like that?
Why?
