For We Are Many

All That Remains

Oh yeah!

The fire it rages
It burns clear in the night
Illuminates the path before us
Now true our arrows strike

Defy, we heed the call Defy, strengthen us all Defy, for we are many Rising against you

Defy, we heed the call Defy, strengthen us all Defy, for we are many Rising to crush you

Now the tide is turning Our might striking fear Our passion foretells our triumph Smite those who stand against us

Defy, we heed the call Defy, strengthen us all Defy, for we are many Rising against you

Defy, we heed the call Defy, strengthen us all Defy, for we are many Rising against you

We are your fast approaching doom

Now tremble

Let the tyrants fall
Let the sons heed their call
Let the tyrants fall
We are your fast approaching doom
