Can not a man of modern day
Find truth in what he's learned
Of all the seventh days a waste
A fool for all the lies I've prayed yet I'm strong
I'll place no blame
Although misled I've found the truth
```

```
This one belief, strength for this mortal dance
This one truth, I feel I'll be set free
This one faith, I know I'll not falter
This one belief, I know I'll be redeemed
```

The night once called to me
An eloquent caress she offered
But I'll not make my bed with whores
And in the place she left a harder yet much truer thing
And now by this I gauge the world

Strength for this mortal dance

```
I feel I'll be set free
I know I'll not falter
I know I'll be redeemed
```
