We Stand

All That Remains

As if this could change us Our roots are deeper than that Born and bred the master of ourselves And of our hearts

Take the best of me and Watch my world fall apart Still I remain steadfast in my heart

Walk a darkened road and We will be our own light Our foundation our core is strong Stand for what's right

We stand again, it breaks my heart The anger burns and I fall apart

Seasons change me, But they won't change my core I have struggled I've fought for less Still this I know

Belief within my self Shall drive me further on Still I fear that the past remains And so shall I

(Still I fear that the past remains and so shall I, and so shall I)

We stand again, it breaks my heart The anger burns and I fall apart We stand again, it breaks my heart The anger burns and I fall apart

Way to go, uah

As if this could change us Our roots are deeper than that Born and bred the master of ourselves And of our hearts

We stand again, it breaks my heart The anger burns and I fall apart We stand again (we stand again), it breaks my heart (it breaks my heart) The anger burns
