

Plans Get Complex

All-Time Quarterback

Would you ever thought of this, a split at the seams
And I was careful enough to keep my questions to The least level of what I thought you could handle

And I was 17 and you kept on changing the plan

Breaking into houses for the sheer thrill of a crime
Was funny at first but then I turned 13 and it got Harder to not get caught with the goods

And I was 17 and you kept on changing Plans were more complex cause the cop cars finally stepped up to bat.
