

Silence

All

Lyrics and music by chad price
I still dream about you now and then
Then I wonder why I am
I still see your body in my head
I remember laying in your bed. it'll never happen again

I don't have a single thing to say
You dried me up in the three years you were mine
Silence
I don't have the words you want to hear
I can't pretend I care
Silence

I can't forget your pictures that I put away
I'll look at them again someday
I still hold your memory close to me
I've tried to share my thoughts
I thought it would never happen to me

I don't have a single thing to say
You dried me up in the three years you were mine
Silence
I don't have the words you want to hear
I can't pretend I care
Silence

Every time I see the smile on our daughters face
She clears up the mistakes and puts us both back into place
But that's a dream that I can't stand to chase

I don't have a single thing to say
You dried me up in the three years you were mine
Silence
I don't have the words you want to hear
I can't pretend I care
Silence
