

Baby Spiders

Allday

Streaming out, we're streaming out
Scattering in all directions and we're going home
We're just like baby spiders
Sicker now, I'm sicker now
And you're not making it better, you're no antidote
You make my sunrises violet

Tired of fluorescent light
Well it seems as though my friends were right
You're quite unkind

You're always fucking round with your hairdo
Always fucking round with my head, too
Just be sorry, at least pretend to
I said to someone 'I'll run and get you'
But you're shining like a heirloom
Everywhere except my bedroom
All the vapid squad you keep close
Feed your ego, not me though

God please give me strength
I need stronger faith
This is more than me
In my heart you'll see
I don't have a plan
Hope I have a chance
I'll leave this with you
You are everything

You, you, you, you, you, you
You, you, you, you, you, you

Don't need you now, don't need you now
It only took me a little while to know
The truth is sometimes violent
Speeding down, we're speeding down
To the city where the teeth are exposed
It's the only time we still get excited

Burning fluorescent light
Well it seems as though my friends were right
You're quite unkind

And the boys form an orderly line
And you call it your fate each time
And your house is big and beach-side
And your photos get plenty likes
On that gin and I'm catatonic
Full of pills and I am euphoric
I know your friends won't let you text me
They trying to end me, these bitches messy

God please give me strength
I need stronger faith
This is more than me
In my heart you'll see
I don't have a plan

Hope I have a chance
I'll leave this with you
You are everything

God please give me strength
(God please give me strength)
This is more than me
(You are everything)
I don't have a plan
(I don't have a plan)
I'll leave this with you
You are everything

You, you, you, you, you, you
You, you, you, you, you, you
You, you, you, you, you, you
You, you, you, you, you
