

Because of You

Alle Farben

What if I,
What if I,
What if I, had a chance an blew it?
What if it,
What if it,
What if it,
broke because you knew it?
I never should have told you,
I never should have known and now you're going so far away
and now you're gonna gone away from me!
What if I,
What if I,
What if I,
had a chance and do it?
What if it,
What if it,
What if it,
broke me cause you knew it?
I never should have told you,
you never should have known
and now you're goin' so far away
and now you're gonna gone away from me!
(me, me, me, ...)
And it's all, all, all because of you,
all, all, all because of you!
And it's all, all, all because of you
all, all, all because of you!
What if I,
What if I,
What if I,
had a chance and do it?
What if it,
What if it,
What if it,
broke because you knew it?
I never should have told you,
and now you're gonna gone away from me!
How could you,
How could you,
How could you,
senselessly uncover
everything, you and me, everything that we had my lover?
As everything unravels,
a supernova wave,
I call but you say another day
and now you're gonna run away from me!
(me, me, me, me, ...)
And it's all, all, all because of you,
all, all, all because of you!
And it's all, all, all because of you
all, all, all because of you!

I did it all, all, all because of you,
all, all, all because of you!
And it's all, all, all because of you
all, all, all because of you!
