

The Renewal

Allegaeon

Cycles in motion continuously shifting conditions and shifting
the seas

With life hosting life endlessly a complex design

The skies clear up for the cleansing has passed

The layers show signs of a violent past

That is proving defining the cycle the system

Theories based on single cell organisms

With energy water and oxygen

Is it possible to revive life again?

What was once spoiled is now fertile land

The question stands was this renewal planned?

Complex reactions for this beast to thrive

Conditions of life adapting to design

Photosynthesis drive atmosphere stabilizes

Self-sustaining biological processes

Cycles in motion continuously shifting conditions and shifting
the seas

With life hosting life endlessly a complex design renewing

Translating the land calculating the stages

Beating the clock surviving the ages

Staring so deep in the eyes of defeat

Knowing now that this phase will repeat
