

Chains Of Alice

Allele

Sober company to find,
As you walk into a lice
Just the token of divine,
To everyone around your life

On the surface you won't believe
What's creeping up inside
Just a lie, but I can see that Somethings wrong today

Open up the chains,
Just leave me, I'm ok
Won't think to sleep tonight
To keep an open line
To see you again
To see my only friends
You know that I will try
To keep you alive
(To keep you alive)

Memories past will fade away,
But what I don't know
Is whatever took his place
As in a concept thing to do with me

Impossible to take is that
Everyone who makes
Is a face of falling,
Look out at the end

Open up the chains,
Just leave me, I'm ok
Won't think to sleep tonight
To keep an open line
To see you again
To see my only friends
You know that I will try
To keep you alive
(Alive)

Could it bleed it, stab it away
Take a bow we're trashing in his hand
Open up the chains
Your life will change
It will change

Open up the chains
Just leave me, I'm ok
Won't think to sleep tonight
To keep an open line
To see you again
To see my only friends
You know that I will try
To keep you alive
