

Silent Rage

Allen-Lande

Refused to see the misery
Don't you hear the crying souls
Refused to give a helping hand
You give me no choice

But to show you the world around you
Show you a life in pain
There is a war going on here
Right before your eyes

I wonder why
You can't deny it
The silent rage going on right now
Don't walk away
You need to stay
The silent rage won't be silent
Silent no more
Won't be silent no more, yeah!

Refused to see the sadness
Don't you see the bleeding hearts
Refused to give them second thoughts
You give me no choice

But to show you the world around you
Show you a life in pain
There is a war going on here
Right before your eyes

I wonder why
You can't deny it
The silent rage going on right now
Don't walk away
You need to stay
The silent rage won't be silent
Silent no more
Silent no more
Won't be silent
No more

I wonder why
You can't deny it
The silent rage going on right now
Don't walk away
You need to stay
The silent rage won't be silent
Silent no more
Won't be silent
Silent no more!
