

Wish For A Miracle

Allen-Lande

What on Earth makes you believe
The rescue will come now?
What on Earth is it that you have heard?
A savior on his way to you
Coming out of nowhere
A knight in shining amour
Saving your life
Taking care of your strive..

You can run and hide
Wait for better times
'till the dark clouds pass by
And you hear no more cries
You can tell more lies
Pretend that no one dies
And just think happy thoughts
Close your eyes and wish for a miracle..

You can't escape the truth no more
You cannot fool yourself
No one will listen to your stories again
Only you can make a change
Create a better time
Only you can save your own life
And keep up the strive.....
