

Need You

Allie X

[Verse 1: Allie X]

Hey, where'd you go?
We used to be friends
We used to be close
Hey, why'd you leave?
I used to need you
You used to need me

[Pre-Chorus 1: Allie X]

Sitting here with a fist full of ashes
And a heart that I can't even use
Just keep telling myself, over and over and over

[Chorus: Allie X]

'Til I don't need you
I don't need you
I don't need you anymore (anymore, anymore)

And now that you're gone
Days are wasted, way too long
Nights feel like years
Felt your body next to mine without you here

Tossing and turning with a fist full of ashes
And a heart that I don't even use
I'll just keep telling myself, over and over and over

'Til I don't need you
I don't need you
I don't need you anymore (anymore, anymore)

Missing you was like second nature
I've seen you with so many ladies
Wishing now that I could erase you
But I don't know what to do (oh)
I'm still calling you on the phone up
I miss the fight with all your drama
Whispering, I get some mantra
That don't make it true

I don't need you
I don't need you
I don't need you anymore (anymore, anymore)

No, I don't need you
No, I don't need you
No, I don't need you
No, I don't need you
