We are in the prime of our existence

(But I think you know the truth it's you)

And happily terminal Yeah, breathe it until we're high

Have some fun, hope you see

Forget what I need Give me what I want And it should be fine x5

In the prime

In the prime
You are my history
Only got a feeling that it won't

Got to give it up before my turn is up

Why not give it a try
Be a beautiful monstrosity
When you're just getting by

And happily terminal Yeah, breathe it until we're high
