Scars

Allison Iraheta

Did I say something stupid? There goes one more mistake Do I bore you with my problems? Is that why you turn away? Do you know how hard I tried To become what you want me to be?

Take me This is all that I've got This is all that I'm not All that I'll ever be I've got flaws, I've got faults Keep searching for your perfect heart It doesn't matter who you are We all have our scars We all have our scars

You say don't act like a child But what if its a father I need? Its not like you don't know what you got yourself into Don't tell me I'm the one who's naive Do you know how hard I've tried To become who you want me to be?

Take me This is all that I've got This is all that I'm not All that I'll ever be

I've got flaws, I've got faults Keep searching for your perfect heart It doesn't matter who you are We all have our scars We all have our scars

Come on, just let it go These are things you can't control Your expectations, your explainations Don't make sense to me You and your alternatives Don't send me to your therapists Deep down, I know what you mean And I'm not sure that's what I wanna be No

Take me This is all that I've got This is all that I'm not All that I'll ever be I've got flaws, I've got faults Keep searching for your perfect heart It doesn't matter who you are We all have our scars We all have our scars Oh no no no

Did I say something stupid

There goes one more mistake..
