

Abalone Sky

Allison Moorer

Fall down on me like a feather floating on a breeze faintest whisper softest calling I am on my knees lead me to the ledge and let me dangle from a limb
I just hang on hear me praying oh no not again

Look for heaven out the window
abalone sky
scattered pearly shimmer sending angels to my side helping hasten hope's return to free me from your grasp
I just hang on hear me praying oh this too shall pass
